SCIENCE FOR SEMINARIES

Science for Seminaries is a longstanding DoSER project that offers grants to a diverse group of seminaries so that they can integrate forefront science into their core curricula in order to help future religious leaders speak confidently about science.

Date published: November 30, 2020

Resource Type: Public Engagement

Link: Science for Seminaries